

Flash Player issues With Social Services Eval Tool

We have had several people experiencing Flash player error messages, like the one below, when trying to upload attachments to the Social Services Evaluation web tool:

This is likely due to recent upgrades to Chrome that may disable the Flash player. If you see this error message, simply click on the "lock" icon by the web address in your browser, and set the "Flash" option to "Always allow on this site":

